

CENTRE FOR RESTORATIVE JUSTICE

The Centre for Restorative Justice in collaboration with Peta Blood is thrilled to offer a 2 day workshop-

CIRCLES & RELATIONAL TEACHING TRAINING

The relationship between restorative practices and circles are explored, both relational, both inclusive and both providing good foundations for effective teaching/learning, with affective management of behavioural issues that may arise.

Purpose of the training

- train classroom educators in how to facilitate circles for social and emotional learning in the classroom
- develop the capacity of educators to teach within a relational framework on a daily basis within their classrooms
- build the capacity of schools to strengthen relationships in the classroom and to develop the core SEL skills in schools at age appropriate levels.

THURSDAY/FRIDAY 2nd/3rd APRIL 2009

Banksia Room
Balyana Conference Centre
46 Strathcona Avenue
Clapham SA 5062

Total Cost $330 ($300.00 plus GST) per participant

Peta Blood-is an international contributor and author in the field of restorative practices, and director of Circle Speak. A former NSW Police Officer she works with a particular focus on building sustainable practice in schools

Debbie Laycock-Teacher qualified in the UK, Debbie is a former Thames Valley Police Officer who works within Education with her focus on preventing young people from entering the Criminal Justice Arena

By the completion of the 2 days participants will:

- Be able to facilitate a circle time session in the classroom
- Be able to demonstrate a circle time session to other staff
- Be able to implement relational teaching in the classroom
- Have practiced circle time and relational teaching
- Have enhanced/developed their facilitation skills
- Have knowledge of the restorative framework and how to apply this in the classroom in a preventative proactive way

234 Sturt Street
Adelaide
S.A.
5000

For Registration or further details, please contact:
Janet Farr/Debbie Laycock on training@oars.org.au
Limited numbers – booking guaranteed only on payment

