The Centre for Restorative Justice is pleased to offer this one day Professional Development Workshop

Restorative Practices... Principles and Practical Application – Full Day Workshop

9.30am - 3.30pm on Tuesday, 21st April 2020
Cost: $250 incl GST incl light lunch and refreshments

Are you interested in restorative practices? Is your organisation considering adopting a restorative approach to dealing with conflict and encouraging behavior development? This workshop is for you! This Introductory 1 day Workshop provides a strong foundation of the theory and practice of Restorative Practice with some practical exposure. It is highly recommended for Organisations including those working in the Community Services sector and anyone working in schools, Principals, Coordinators, Teachers, SSOs and administration staff, as a starting point or refresher on practice.

Our experienced Facilitator/s will provide a day that includes theoretical underpinnings and practical interaction.

Objectives of the day include:

- Basic knowledge of the theoretical underpinnings of restorative practices.
- Application of restorative practices in schools and organisations.
- Benefits of restorative approaches in schools and organisations
- Basic foundations of restorative processes in daily life.

Spaces are limited, so please register as soon as possible to secure your booking.

Parking is available at the Entertainment Centre at a cost of $5 if the EDC parking on Orsmond Road is full.
